A Somber Remembrance of 9-11 As we near the date of September 11th, we recall sad and tragic day of September 11, 2001. This year are twenty years since that horrific and inhumane attack on our nation occurred. Terrorists had attacked the United States at several locations. They sought to create havoc within our Godloving nation. The acts of violence were immediately condemned by the world society as a whole. May the world never condone such acts of hatred, terror, and violence. The initial reaction by Americans was to turn inwardly to one another and yes also at times to God for comfort and solace. However, as time has goes on the resurgence of faith and worship to God Almighty has diminished. Let us pray that our nation and indeed the whole world return in prayer and worship to God and seek His Divine Protection over us as a nation and over each of us individually. Save Your people, O Lord God, and bless Your inheritance and protect Your faithful by Your Cross!
