The Bishops of the Metropolia of Philadelphia have created a special fund entitled: “War Victims and Humanitarian Crisis in Ukraine”. The fund can be accessed through the website of the Archeparchy of Philadelphia: <https://ukrarcheparchy.us/donate>.

Russia's war against Ukraine continues to escalate, and civilians bear the brunt of renewed bombings. Most recently, kamikaze drones have wrought death and destruction across the country.

The Metropolia Humanitarian Aid Fund has already sent over $5 million to assist war victims and plans to send more. If the Archeparchy of Philadelphia is strong, it will be better able to aid Ukraine.

The Ukrainian Catholic Archeparchy of Philadelphia held a Report and Benefit Luncheon on October 30 at the Ukrainian American Cultural Center of New Jersey (UACCNJ) in Whippany, N.J., during which time some 120 people gathered to hear reports on the status of the archeparchy. The event, the second of its kind in October and the last of the year, raised more than $80,000 for the Ukrainian Catholic Archeparchy of Philadelphia. The outpouring of support from clergy, lay faithful and institutions of the Ukrainian community at the event also made it tremendously successful.

PLEASE PRAY FOR PEACE IN UKRAINE!
