Thanksgiving Day reminds us that we, both Catholic Christians and Americans, have indeed much to be thankful for. Let us begin this Thanksgiving by coming together on Thursday morning as God’s Children in His House – our Church. We should gather here to express thanks to God for all His many favors. As Americans, we should express our gratitude for the blessing of living as we do in a free and prosperous land. As Christians, we should gather to express our gratitude for our faith, a faith that gives us the joy of knowing that God is our Loving Father.

HAPPY THANKSGIVING DAY!
